

NORVIS XLV

NORTHUMBRIAN RECORDER AND VIOL SCHOOL

NORVIS XLV
COLLEGE OF
ST HILD & ST BEDE
DURHAM CITY

Summer School
for Early Music 2015
Saturday 1st to
Saturday 8th August

NORVIS XLV

The course, established in 1971 by Layton and Christine Ring, is for people interested in every aspect of early music.

It caters for students of all ages and experience, from elementary to advanced, with classes for Recorder (A415 and A440), Viol (A415), Lute, Baroque Strings (A415), Harpsichord and Solo Singing.

The many activities include technique classes, concerts, lectures and a wide variety of ensemble work, including trio sonatas, consorts, renaissance band, choir and baroque orchestra, dance and more.

The College of St Hild and St Bede is a constituent college of the University of Durham, within easy reach of the city centre and the bus and railway stations. The city, with its castle and unequalled Norman cathedral, is an ideal centre for tourism. We welcome players and non-players alike.

The St Hild and St Bede site is on many levels and, although the grounds are beautiful and extensive, they are very steep in many areas.

Students are accommodated in single study bedrooms with shared facilities. A small number of ensuite twin and single rooms are available at an extra charge, on a first-come, first-served basis.

Early application for all classes is advised and there is a discount for those applying before 1st April 2015.

Students should bring their own instruments to the course. If this is difficult, please consult the Secretary: a limited number of viols will be available for hire at a charge of £25, and loan of other instruments and bows can usually be arranged if requested before June. During the week, provision is made for repairs to stringed instruments and bows.

During the Week

Jacks Pipes and Hammers

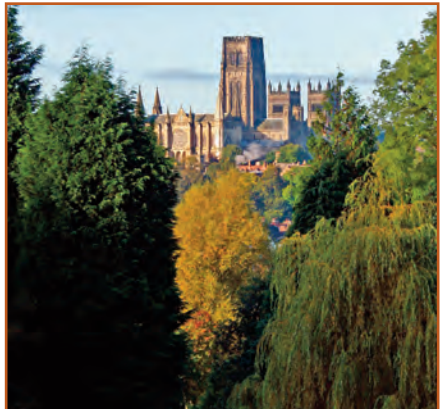

tel. 01422 882751

(email: sales@recordermail.co.uk) will have a shop at the school for the sale of music. All course music is available in advance; ordering details are on the Music List.

The Early Music Shop will visit NORVIS with instruments and CDs for sale.

Richard Jones will bring along a selection of his Renaissance viols for a day's sampling and playing.

The College authorities do not permit caravans or any form of camping in the grounds, neither do they allow animals. Smoking is not permitted in College buildings.

DAILY PROGRAMME

MORNING

1st Session: Technique

The options will include Solo Bass Viol, Viol, Solo Recorder, Recorder, Singing, Baroque Strings, Harpsichord and Lute/Theorbo. It is preferable for students to stay with one chosen option for the whole week.

2nd Session: Ensembles

This session provides opportunities for playing one to a part in consorts, Renaissance mixed ensembles, or trio sonatas, and for solo or ensemble singing: groups will be arranged according to ability and experience. If you wish to be considered for more than one option please show your preference on the application form. These groups can be changed during the week.

AFTERNOON

1st Session: Free except for Baroque Orchestra (2pm–3.30pm) and Choir (2.30pm–4pm).

2nd Session: Choice of Delights

A free-choice session including a wide variety of activities such as: Viol Consorts, Recorder Ensemble, Voices and Viols, Renaissance Band, Lute Song, Plucked Instruments, Early Court Dancing, Division Recorder, and Facsimile. Wednesday afternoon is entirely free.

EVENING

There will be lectures, concerts (given by course tutors and students), a Ceilidh on Wednesday and a final concert by the choir and orchestra on Friday. This year the choir will prepare and perform two settings of the Sanctus by Bach, and Lift up your heads, o ye gates by Blow, and the orchestra Bach's Orchestral Suite in B minor.

BURSARIES AND HELP WITH FEES

NORVIS is able to offer generous bursaries to assist young people, students, the unwaged and others to meet the tuition fees.

Other organisations are also able to help with the fees:

the Viola da Gamba Society administers the Joy Dodson fund for this purpose and your local authority may also be able to help. Please ask the Secretary for further details.

To help make accommodation more affordable we offer a range of options, from tuition only to full board and tuition – please see the fees table.

We also welcome those wishing to book accommodation only.

PAYMENT DETAILS

Please enclose a deposit of £50 with your application (cheque payable to NORVIS – please write your name and address on the back) or inform the Secretary when direct payment has been made. The balance of the fees will be due by 1 June 2015.

Direct payments may be made to NORVIS, TSB account 00402058 Sort Code 30-25-82
